

INFORMATION SHEET

17 October 2025

Extension of the residence permit pursuant to Section 24 AufenthG Valid until 4 March 2027

The decision reached was:

On October 17, 2025, the Federal Council ratified the Second Ordinance Amending the Ukraine Residence Permit Continued Validity Ordinance (2. UkraineAufenthÄndFGV). This action automatically extends the residence permit for individuals granted temporary protection under Section 24 of the Residence Act until March 4, 2027.

The implications of this are

If your residence permit is valid on February 1, 2026, it will automatically extend until March 4, 2027.

No application or appointment at the immigration office is required.

All rights (employment, housing, social benefits, insurance, etc.) remain in effect.

Important Notice:

Numerous residence permits continue to display earlier expiration dates (e.g., 04.03.2024 or 04.03.2025). The document retains its validity; the extension is mandated by law. Should a bank, authority, or police fail to acknowledge the date, please consult this resolution and Federal Council Printed Paper 574/25 dated October 17, 2025.

Legal foundation

Section 24 of the Residence Act (AufenthG)

Ukraine Residence Permit Continuation Validity Regulation (UkraineAufenthFGV)

Second amending regulation, enacted on 17 October 2025

EU Council Decision (EU) 2025/1460 – Extension of temporary protection until March 4, 2027

Regulation

Decision of the Federal Council

